Parents and Students:
    Please choose your classes wisely. Even though we allow some changes to elective course at the start of each semester, there is no guarantee that there will be space available if you choose to add a class later. There is a greater chance of getting into the class that meets your educational plan if you make it a request now.
                                                                        - CMMS Counseling Team
